

SOCIETY

AT THE request of the Board of Governors of the Wednesday Club, through Alfred B. Williams to Mrs. Swanson, a large contingent of the society and representative women of Richmond have become actively interested in the success of the Wednesday Club festival next month, and have signified their willingness to follow Mrs. Swanson's lead in becoming festival patronesses.

The Wednesday Club feels the need, in the effort it is making, to put its organization on a new basis and its concerts within reach of all wishing to attend them, of the influence of the women of the community whose presence will spell success, and lend social grace and interest to the festival which is the musical event of the year in Richmond.

The Wednesday Club has reached a point in its history where its future even depends upon the hearty and sympathetic co-operation of such representative women. Mrs. Swanson has made all this plain by a heart-to-heart talk over the teacups with her society friends, who are spending their Lenten season in Richmond.

She is deeply interested, of course, and will leave nothing undone to encourage and promote the growth of the good movement she has inaugurated, a movement which means so much to Richmond and its people.

Easter and Jamestown.

One of the pleasantest social events of Easter will be the excursion under the auspices of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities on Easter Monday, April 12, to Jamestown Island, where the monument erected there to Captain John Smith will be unveiled with appropriate ceremonies. Mrs. Thomas Christian, chairman of arrangements for the day, will have on her committee Mrs. Charles P. Lee, assistant chairman, and Mrs. Henry Taylor, Jr. This committee has secured the Pocahontas for the day, which promises everything in the way of enjoyment and interest.

The program of exercises at the island will be simple, but most impressive. The Rev. Braxton Bryan, of Petersburg, will make the opening prayer, and the presentation address will be delivered by Almond A. Blow, of Belleville, Gloucester county, Va., and received by Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson, as the representative of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities.

Mayor David C. Richardson will introduce the speakers, and the statue will be unveiled by Master Joseph Bryan III, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. St. George Bryan.

The Pocahontas will leave the wharf in Richmond at 8 A. M. sharp, and return at a reasonable hour. The officers and members of the association will be among those going to Jamestown, and the company making the trip with them will be most congenial and agreeable, so that this first excursion of 1909 will offer a delightful chance to spend an Easter holiday out of town.

The Week Just Gone.

The week just past, in looking backward, seems very full and very pleasant. On Monday afternoon, in the parlors of the Woman's Club, the "Harley Annual" burst into such luxuriant bloom that its fragrance is still lingering pleasantly in mind. Other gatherings of the week include the tea given by Mrs. Swanson Wednesday afternoon to Mrs. Byrd and Miss Carr, the talk given by Mrs. Herbert Cushing, of Boston, at the Woman's Club Thursday afternoon; the presence of Professor Woodberry at the club Saturday evening, and the wedding of Miss Agnes Bell Johnston to Charles Ward Eaton, celebrated in the home of the bride's parents Thursday evening.

Society's Comings and Goings.

Miss Mattie Baskerville is at her home, on East Grace Street, having returned from a delightful house party in Oxford, N. C.

Miss Dandridge, of Martinsburg, and Miss Saunders, of Lynchburg, are among most attractive visitors to the city.

Mrs. Hillard Russell, of Cincinnati, formerly Miss Eleanor Tree, of Richmond, reached the city yesterday, and with her baby is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tree.

The Rt. Rev. George Peterkin, Bishop of West Virginia, and Mrs. Peterkin have returned from a trip to Miami, Fla., and will be in Richmond for some days.

Chaplain E. T. Stevenson, of the battleship Virginia, who made the trip around the world with the American fleet, is visiting Hon. and Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, at 10 East Franklin Street. Chaplain Stevenson had charge of the refectory, presented to the Virginia by Mrs. Ellyson, and found it a source of the greatest pleasure and entertainment to the sailors of the ship during their long trip.

Dr. Palmer Here.

The Rev. Wallace S. Palmer, D. D., of New Orleans, who will make the address before the annual mass-meeting of the Huguenot Evangelical Society this evening in the Second Presbyterian Church, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. William S. Gordon, of 5 East Franklin Street.

Hostesses and Guests.

Hostesses of the tea room at the Jefferson Hotel continue to render it most attractive to society, so that there has been no abatement of the numbers that gather each afternoon around the tables and beneath the palms. Guests have been welcomed during the week by Mrs. St. George Bryan, Miss Evelyn Gordon, Mrs. E. C. Mayo, Miss Marion Harris, Miss Gertrude Camm, Miss Nellie Tompkins, Miss Maude Morgan, Mrs. Scott Parrish, Miss Caroline Reynolds and Miss Mabel Walker, Miss Nan Lindsey, Miss Pose Meredith, Miss Kate Meredith, Miss Mildred Boyd, Miss Mabel Walker, Mrs. W. S. P. Mayo, Mrs. A. S. Buford, Mrs. Archie Bates, Mrs. Thomas Pinckney Bryan, Miss Mary Hickok, Mrs. Hunsdon Cary, Misses Helen Adams, Daisy Boykin, Edith Taylor, Bernard Cooke, Helen Lathrop, Lillian Buford, Louise Price, Alma Cecil and Ellen Witt.

Among those calling were: Mrs. Henry Baskerville, Mrs. Marsh, Miss Constance Peterkin, Miss E. H. Mercer, Mrs. R. E. Byrd, Mrs. Carroll Montague, Mrs. Kiltson, Mrs. J. L. Shelton, Mrs. Arthur Scrivener, Miss Elizabeth Hotchkiss, Miss Virginia Gordon, Miss Carr, Lieutenant David, United States Army; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. ## Spring Opening

An Exhibit of Millinery, Gowns, Wraps, Suits, and Accessories

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday,
March 23d, 24th, 25th.

WE CORDIALLY invite your inspection of SPRING FASHIONS. No source has been overlooked that contributes to the brilliant success we predict for Richmond's leading Women's and Children's Apparel Store.

THE MILLINERY SALON will be aglow with the latest creations from EUROPEAN style centres. Such well-known artists as Camille Roger,orgette, Susanne Rebeux and Julia.

The foremost New York Milliners contribute their full quota to this display. Our own work-room artists are also represented. This is an exposition we can justly be proud of, being the cleverest collection of Millinery ever shown in Richmond.

OUR display of SUITS, DRESSES and COSTUMES for this season bear witness to the efforts we make to emulate such high examples that our garments have that distinction and gracefulness of poise that so strongly appeal to women who know. The foreign as well as domestic productions are shown in the Directorate and Empire Models. Beautiful Lingerie, three-piece costumes and street dresses in all the newest colorings and weaves.

BEAUTIFUL WAISTS of elaborate as well as plainer designs in Lingerie, Net, Lace, Linen and Lawn now have their first showing. There is a generous collection of the finest as well as the moderate priced ones. The variety is so varied that they must be seen to be appreciated.

Gloves, Neckwear, Belts, Parasols, Shell Goods and Jewelry.

A splendid gathering of exclusive novelties and artistic creations from foreign and foremost distinguished designers. Importing direct as we do, we are enabled to show foreign productions that are different, yet at moderate prices. It is these accessories that go to make milady's spring attire complete.

HOME-MADE DANDRUFF CURE.

Thousands of men and women who are troubled with dandruff and falling hair will be glad to know of the following simple mixture that can be made at home and which is a better preparation than any of the high-priced patent remedies on the market and at less than half the cost.

Get from your drug store one ounce of Beta Quinol and half a pint of alcohol, mix the alcohol with half a pint of warm water, then add the Beta Quinol and shake well together. People who have tried this claim that it is far superior to the many patent preparations on the market. Applied every morning for a week or so, then once or twice a week, it will positively cure dandruff and stop falling hair. It will make the hair soft and glossy. You should get some of this and make it up.

The Turner Millinery Opening, 417 East Broad.

We wish to announce to our friends and the public our opening of Spring Hats,

Tuesday and Wednesday,
March 23d and 24th.

riage ceremony will be witnessed only by nearest relatives and friends. No cards.

March Social Event.

In the Jefferson Hotel Auditorium on the evening of March 26, the combined musical clubs of Hampden-Sydney College will give a brilliant concert that promises to be a social event of interest.

The club will be entertained by Mrs. Blanton, of 209 West Grace Street, and at a dance while in Richmond. Richmond members of the organization are Messrs. T. M. and J. B. Pitts, Valentine Moore and James Cecil.
